

Nativity Preparatory School of Wilmington Science Master Teacher

Essential Qualities

- Embody the spirit and mission of Nativity Prep and be an example of Salesian values to our community
- Be an optimistic, joyful, servant leader and role model for students and staff
- Continually seek new ways to improve Nativity Prep, specifically in science
- Inspire students with a love of science
- Have exceedingly high standards and aspirational hopes for our students

Specific Responsibilities:

- Ensure that the Nativity mission and Salesian vision are integrated into all aspects of the Science curriculum
- Teach all 5th-8th grade science classes - 16 classes per week
- Continually develop an integrated science curriculum for all grades
- Ensure that students are given the opportunity to engage in experiential learning assessments and perform at least 1 lab per unit.
- Take on significant leadership role in at least one of the following areas:
 - Curriculum Review process
 - Professional Development
 - The process of obtaining grants to enhance Nativity's science program
 - Planning of Nativity's academic field trips
 - Admissions
 - Student data tracking and analysis
 - Summer Program
- Direct Nativity Prep's Science Olympiad team as a collaborative effort, accounting for advanced planning and timely communication across the entire faculty
- Mentor Resident Teachers through a model of observation, co-teaching and co-planning
- Moderate, coach, or lead activities in the after class program once a week
- Proctor Evening Study one night per week
- Proctor recesses and lunches and monitor halls
- Lead small groups of students in school-wide cleaning
- Moderate House in academic goal setting through weekly meetings, regular check ins, college competitions, team building and Salesian faith formation
- Participate in staff meetings, in-services, open houses, parent conferences and other activities as determined by the administration

To apply please email a cover letter and resume to Paul Webster, Principal, at pwebster@nativitywilmington.org.